Resolution No. 134

WHEREAS, Article IV, Part III of the Integrated Reorganization Plan, as approved by Presidential Decree No. 1, as amended, dated 24 September 1972, created the Career Executive Service Board (CESB) to serve as the governing body of the Career Executive Service (CES) with the mandate to promulgate policies, rules, guidelines, standards, systems and processes for the recruitment, selection, classification, compensation, placement and the leadership, professional and career development of members of the CES;

WHEREAS, the Board, through CES Board Resolution No. 882 enacted on 13 July 2010, promulgated and institutionalized the CES Accreditation and Equivalency System (CESAES) for the purpose of promoting and sustaining continuing professional growth, self-development and capacity strengthening of CESOs and third level eligibles in a purposive, effective, systematic and efficient manner;

WHEREAS, the CESAES empowers and enables the Board to formulate, prescribe, implement and manage a system of policies, guidelines, standards, systems, processes and tools which constitute the parameters and mechanisms for:

- 1) Evaluating, establishing the equivalency of, and recognizing leadership, personal/professional development and management capability building programs for CESOs and third level eligibles; and
- 2) Granting accreditation (re-accreditation) to the said training programs and to institutions engaged in the development and delivery of the said programs;

WHEREAS, the Guthrie-Jensen Consultants Inc., a duly registered company in the Philippines which prides itself as one of the leading Management and Training Consultancy firms in the Philippines and one of the largest in Southeast Asia and has a wide range of services managed under seven (7) divisions, namely: Organizational Development; Business; Management and Leadership Development; Client Care and Retention; Sales and Client Acquisition; Communication; and Public Seminars;

WHEREAS, Guthrie-Jensen applied for the grant of institutional accreditation and submitted all required reportorial requirements;

WHEREAS, Guthrie-Jensen has also applied for the grant of accreditation for the training programs/workshop courses on "Unleashing the Strategic Leader: The Move from Operational Leader to Strategic and Innovative Leader", and "Communication Assertiveness" and likewise submitted all required reportorial requirements;

WHEREAS, after complete and diligent review and evaluation by the Board, the abovementioned requirements have been found to have substantially and satisfactorily complied with all applicable terms, conditions and requirements stipulated in the CESAES for the grant of accreditation status;

NOW THEREFORE, foregoing premises considered, the Board resolves, as it is hereby resolved, to APPROVE the grant of institutional accreditation to the Guthrie-Jensen Consultants, Inc. and program accreditation to its training programs/ workshop courses subject to applicable terms as prescribed by the CESAES, as follows;
